WAYNE COUNTY FIRE RULED ARSON; REWARD OFFERED

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner Ralph Hudgens said a fire investigator in his office has ruled a weekend mobile home fire in Wayne County arson.

The fire, which occurred Saturday, Jan. 20, at 91 Womack Road in Jesup, Ga., originated in the master bedroom of the home. The blaze destroyed the residence, and a mother and her two children were displaced, Commissioner Hudgens said. No one was home at the time of the fire.

Commissioner Hudgens is asking anyone with information about this fire to call 1-800-282-5804. A reward of up to $10,000 is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the arsonist. Calls are taken 24 hours a day; callers can choose to remain anonymous.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Office is assisting with the investigation.
