GWINNETT INSURANCE AGENT SURRENDERS LICENSE

Atlanta – Insurance Commissioner Ralph Hudgens announced today that a Gwinnett County insurance agent currently under investigation by the Commissioner’s office has agreed to surrender his license to sell insurance in Georgia.

Insurance agent John Paul Kill, 63, signed a consent order on July 31, agreeing to voluntarily surrender his agent and agency licenses. Kill operated Appeal Insurance Agency at 5548 Naylor Court in Norcross, Ga. The order is effective immediately, and bars Kill from selling or soliciting insurance in the state.

Hudgens said an ongoing investigation into Kill’s practices at Appeal Insurance Agency will continue. Anyone who believes they received or were paying for a policy from Kill or Appeal Insurance Agency should contact Commissioner Hudgens’ office at 1-800-656-2298 and ask for the Fraud Division.
